Kimberly-Hansen Police Department

The City of Kimberly has welcome several new staff members in the Police Department over the last few months. As we close out the year and all gather for the Holidays lets welcome to the City of Kimberly Family our news Police Officers– Jesse Vogler, and Sgt. Sjuni Bunderson, and welcome back to the force Brook Prudent.

Sjuni Bunderson

Brook Prudent

We also said good bye to one of our officer. Officer Russell Poulsen has moved on to the Idaho State Police and we wish him well. Please when you see our officers out and about give them a warm hello and welcome them aboard.

The City of Kimberly would also like to congratulate Officer Kyle Rawlins who recently graduated from POST and is now a certified officers. CONGRATULATIONS!!!!

Come join the Ageless Senior Center for Lunch Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Enjoy a great home cooked ~~meal and conversation. ~~

Public Works Department

The City has welcomed two new employees over the last few months in the Public Works Department. Don Varney who comes to the City from Challis, and Chardon Hartley who joined us from the Railroad. Both these employees bring a wealth of knowledge and have help build a strong team. Please welcome them to the City of Kimberly Family.

Don Varney

Public Works Department

The Public Works Department also lost Melissa Williamson as she left the City to pursue a career with the Intermountain Gas Company, the City wishes her the best of luck as she continues on her career path.

Reminder City Hall will be closed for the following
